

The Tigers had a very exciting morning!

When we arrived in school a mysterious space ship had crashed landed in our garden! There was lots of excitement and even a silver trail to follow to see if they could find anything. The children were eager to write to Cbeebies to report their findings and their ideas on what or who it could be and what the alien pilot could look like. We had some great drawings too!